GASOLINE POWER USED IN PLOWING BIG FARM

Is Found To Be of Practical Use By Andrzej Jepsen of Tempe.

That plowing by locomotive power will soon be a familiar object in the Salt River Valley is the opinion of several ranchers and Andrzej Jepsen in particular, who is now giving this method of tilling the ground a thorough trial on his 640 acre ranch south of Tempe. This is probably the first time that plowing by gasoline, or any like power has ever been given a trial in this section, but after watching the operation for two months it is beginning to look as though such a proposition might become of practical use just as it is in other sections of the union.

Mr. Jepsen is preparing for the cultivation of his section of land in anticipation of planting the spring crops decided that he would at least try the gasoline machine. Consequently a machine was ordered from an eastern factory and immediately upon its arrival in Tempe it was set to work. The contrast however with the ground where the machine was given a tryout and the condition of the local earth was found to be great. Five plows and two harrows are being propelled by the gasoline engine although it was first thought that the machine could draw twice that many.

The average amount of earth cultivated per day at the present time is fifteen acres, counting ten hours work to the day. Already three hundred acres of the toughest bermuda sod on the ranch has been turned.

And by the first of February Jepsen hopes to see the entire farm cultivated and in readiness for the spring planting.

A slight delay has been caused during the past two weeks by a break in the gasoline engine, neces-itating an order sent to the eastern factory for another part. Operations were resumed yesterday morning and it is thought will continue from now until the job is finished.

Farmers of the valley and others interested in the work who have watched the progress being made by the gasoline plows express themselves as confident that such a device will soon take the place of horses to a large extent in this section.

THE BUSY WOMAN'S DAY

It begins early, ends late, and is full of work. She often has kidney trouble without knowing it. Her back aches, and she is tired and worn out.
Sleeps poorly, is nervous, no appetite.
Her bladder gives her trouble, too.
Foley's Kidney Pills will cure all that and make her strong and well. They are the best medicine made for kidney and bladder disorders.—Elvey & Hulett.—Advertisement.

TO THE OIL FIELD.

C. G. Jones, president of the Tempe Verde oil company, which is sinking a well in the Verde Valley, left last evening for the field to supervise operations. It is expected that work will be resumed at once according to advices received yesterday from L. V. Stewart who is located at the field at this time.

COUGHING AT NIGHT

One bad cough can keep the whole family awake at night. Phil. Disorcean, Schaffer, Mich. says: "I could not sleep on account of a bad cough, and I was very weak. I used Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and soon the cough left and I sleep soundly at night." Elvey & Hulett.—Advertisement.

NEARING COMPLETION.

The new residence being constructed by Miss Mina Doshner on her property at the corner of Seventh street and Maple avenue is now nearing completion. All of the structural work has been accomplished leaving the finishing work now to be attended to.

ADDRESSED STUDENTS.

Rev. R. E. Dunlap, pastor of the Christian church, delivered a very interesting and instructive lecture to the students of the Tempe normal yesterday morning at opening exercises.

WINTER VISITOR DIES.

Lester L. Phillips, aged twenty-five, who has been spending the winter in Tempe, died early yesterday morning at his home in Goldsmith addition.
The deceased in company with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Phillips and W. G. Bryner arrived in Tempe the middle of October and took up quarters in the beach residence east of the normal. They were formerly located at Western, Washington, but made the change in the hopes of benefiting the health of the younger Mr. Phillips. The change was made too late however. Although the invalid did improve for the time being after arriving in Tempe, his health eventually took a decided change with death as the result. The remains will be shipped to the old home of the Phillips family in Washington, this evening, accompanied by the relatives now living in Tempe.

WILL LOCATE.

Joe Achorage of People's Valley, a small community in Yavapai county, was a visitor in Tempe yesterday looking after a location for his family.

TO SPEND THE HOLIDAYS.

Matthew Moss of Havera, California arrived in Tempe yesterday morning to spend the remainder of the year with Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Miller of this place. During his stay here Mr.

Moss plans to put in some time investigating the orange industry, that being his occupation in the neighboring state.

FROM PHOENIX.

Mr. Morrison, representing the Hupmobile agency for Arizona and New Mexico was a visitor in Tempe yesterday with a demonstrating car.

TESTING MILK.

The agricultural classes of the past week or ten days testing milk obtained from the various dairies surrounding Tempe. In accomplishing this they have been using the Baby-cock testing machine, which works by hand, to a large extent. Last Saturday the two classes, headed by Professor P. G. Porter paid a visit to the Pacific Creamery plant east of town where some time was spent looking over the industry of condensing and canning milk. Demonstration milk and cream testing also came in for consideration.

ATTENDED SHOW IN PHOENIX.

Several auto parties composed of Tempe people attended the production of the "Chocolate Soldier" at the Elks' Theater in Phoenix Monday night. Among them was a party made up of Walter Wilbur, Frank Peck, Miss Laura Bobbs, and Professor and Mrs. F. M. Irish.

FUNERAL HELD YESTERDAY.

The funeral of the late Edward Wesson, who died last Sunday at Ray, Arizona, was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the E. P.
Carr undertaking parlors in this city.
Rev. Wilbur Plisk, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church officiating.
Interment was made in the Double Butte cemetery. Upon looking into the facts surrounding the injury and death of Mr. Wesson it has developed that he was primarily hurt one week ago last Sunday by being thrown from a wagon. Four days later spinal meningitis set in and an operation was found necessary to guard against further illness. However after going under the ether preparatory to the operation he never regained consciousness.

LIBRARY CARNIVAL OPENS AT 11:30 TODAY

Preparations for the Great Social Event of the Holiday Season in Mesa.

The lady managers of the Mesa public library and free reading room have enlisted the support of nearly every person in Mesa and vicinity for the grand two days' carnival which will open at the Mesa opera house at 11:30 today, when a business man's lunch will be served. All day yesterday a number of decorators and carpenters were busy preparing the booths and decorating them for the reception of the various articles and purposes for which the booths are intended. The work of decorating has been most artistic and reflects credit upon the parties having it in charge.

Passing the main entrance of the opera house, the first booth at the right is known as the Fern booth and will be in charge of Mrs. F. B.
Curley and Mrs. H. S. Hockensmith.
The ferns to be sold have been received direct from California and are as handsome as pictures.

The second booth will be in charge of Mrs. Childs and Miss Brugman, who will supply popcorn in any quantity wanted.

Booth No. 3, is where the people in want of ice cream can be supplied for a consideration, and will be presided over by the senior boys of the Mesa high school.

Booth No. 4, will have cooked food, and Mrs. Peterson and Mrs. Ents will be in charge.

Booth No. 5, will no doubt be largely patronized by those with a "sweet tooth," as it is there that the girls of the senior class of the Mesa high school will keep home made candy on sale.

The last booth on the north side of the room will be in charge of the Evans school boys, and will be at a fish pond. Just what kind of fish it will be stocked with is problematical. The patron will learn when he has made a few casts with the line.

The stage is to be utilized as a farm yard, where the pigs, the turkeys, the chickens and the lambs will be impounded. Parties desiring to embark in the stock or poultry business may secure the nucleus of a great industry at this yard.

Next to the stage on the south side of the room will be the lunch counter, presided over by the young ladies of the Mutual Improvement association. This booth will appeal to the hungry, for the public is generally aware that the Mesa ladies DO know how to cook.

Adjoining this is the Japanese tea booth, where Mrs. Cecil L. L. Drew and Mrs. Geo. A. Johnson, costumed as two charming almond eyed ladies will serve tea to all who have the price.

Next to this will be the Cocoa booth, in charge of the good ladies of the Mesa W. C. T. U. Cocoa only will be served; there will positively be no two per cent.

The library booth will be in charge of Mrs. Benjamin Blanchard, secretary of the association, which will receive subscriptions and new members to the association. She will also have charge of the guessing contests for the bride, turkey, pig, etc.
Before leaving the hall one can enter the fortune teller's booth where Mlle. Fortunatus will read

Testimony of a resident of West Washington Street

Joseph Coulson, 448 W. Washington St., Phoenix, Ariz., says: "There was a dull, nagging pain across my loins and kidneys. I had a fall which injured my back and I was unconscious for many hours.
